

Detectives Make Arrests in Series of Burglaries

Alicia E. Satterfield

Rontrell Leonard

Alonzo D. Sutton-Bullock (WANTED)

Presented by Public Information Officer, Master Corporal Gary Fournier

Kent and Sussex County – State Police Criminal Investigators and municipal police agencies in Kent and Sussex Counties have concluded their investigations into a series of commercial and residential burglaries and made arrests.

Detectives recently arrested Alicia E. Satterfield, 20 of Dagsboro, and a 16-year-old male from Ocean View, in connection with multiple residential burglaries committed in the Millville and Ocean View areas that occurred the first week in March. These burglaries occurred primarily during the daytime hours of residences that were unoccupied or seasonal homes. Once inside the houses, the duo would remove various electronic devices and currency, or sometimes, nothing at all, but would cause damage to the dwellings upon entering various doors and windows.

Alicia Satterfield and the 16-year-old male were both charged with six counts of Burglary, five counts of Attempted Burglary, Possession of Burglar Tools, ten counts of Conspiracy 2nd, ten counts of Attempted Theft, one count of Theft, and five counts of Criminal Mischief. They were both released on unsecured bonds.

In a separate investigation involving commercial burglaries, Rontrell Leonard, 19 of Seaford, was arrested by state police detectives for three counts of Burglary, one count of Attempted Burglary, three counts of Wearing a Disguise During the Commission of a Felony, four counts of Possession of Burglar Tools, three counts of Theft, four counts of Conspiracy 2nd, and four counts of Criminal Mischief. The charges stem from investigations that occurred over the months of January and February of 2017 involving various restaurants in Kent County and a gas station in Milton. It was determined through investigative measures that Leonard and co-conspirator, identified as Alonzo D. Sutton-Bullock, 20 of Camden, would enter and remove cash registers and currency. Rontrell Leonard was arraigned and committed to Sussex Correctional Institution on $10,000.00 secured bond.

Alonzo Sutton-Bullock has not been arrested and is wanted for three counts of Burglary, one count of Attempted Burglary, three counts of Wearing a Disguise During the Commission of a Felony, four counts of Possession of Burglar Tools, three counts of Theft, four counts of Conspiracy 2nd, and four counts of Criminal Mischief.

Other burglaries were committed by Leonard and Sutton-Bullock in the jurisdictions of Milton Police Department and Dover Police Department. Both departments, as well as the state police, worked together in solving these crimes and have additionally charged Leonard and have warrants on file for Sutton-Bullock.

If anyone has any information in reference to Alonzo Sutton-Bullock's whereabouts, they are asked to contact Detective D. Kristunas at 302-752-3856 or Detective S. Carbine at 302-698-8444.
