

Traffic Advisory-Talleyville

Presented by the Director of Public Information Sergeant Richard D. Bratz

Talleyville – The Delaware State Police are currently investigating a vehicle crash on Concord Pike northbound at Foulk Road which occurred at around 7:00 a.m. this morning. At this time it is unknown how many people are injured and the extent of their injuries.

Concord Pike in the area of the crash is currently closed. Commuters are advised to use caution in the area of the crash as troopers are continuing to investigate the collision.

Released: 090717 0731

-End-