

Troopers Seek Publics Assistance in Identifying Shoplifting Suspects

Newark – Delaware State Police are asking for the public's assistance, in identifying the two shoplifting suspects pictured above, who are responsible for stealing over $4300.00 worth of designer clothing, from the Saks Off 5th department store, located at 2500 Fashion Center Boulevard, Newark.

The investigation has determined that at approximately 2:00 p.m., Tuesday, November, 28, 2017, the two suspects were observed by store employees exiting the store, with a large quantity of merchandise, which they had not rendered payment for. The suspects successfully evaded apprehension and were able to flee with the merchandise which was valued at approximately $2500.00

Later this same date, at approximately 3:45 p.m., both suspects were again observed by Saks employees inside the store, this time as they were concealing merchandise in their purses and other shopping bags. Both suspects exited the store without rendering payment for the merchandise, which was valued at over $1800.00, and again evaded apprehension, as they fled in an awaiting vehicle.

Suspect #1 is described as a black female, 18-21 years of age, 5'6"-5'8", large build, with reddish colored hair.

Suspect #2 is described as a black female, 17-21 years of age, with a small build.

The suspect vehicle is a red, 2017 Hyundai Sonata, with New York tags, driven by a black male.

Anyone who can identify the above pictured suspects or who may have further information regarding this incident is asked to contact Corporal S. Shelton at Troop 6 by calling 302-633-5000. Information may also be provided by calling Delaware Crime Stoppers at 1-800-TIP-3333 or via the internet at <http://www.delaware.crimestoppersweb.com>
