

Troopers Investigate Pharmacy Robbery-Wilmington

WANTED Raquan White

Wilmington (19803)– Delaware State Police are currently investigating the robbery of a Wilmington area pharmacy that occurred last evening in which one suspect has been identified.

The incident occurred on Thursday, May 10, 2018 at approximately 8:40 p.m., as a male and a female entered the CVS Pharmacy located at 4020 Concord Pike, and picked up shopping baskets. The suspects loaded the shopping baskets with over $100.00 in merchandise, consisting mainly of deodorants, body washes, and hand lotions.

As the suspects proceeded to exit the store, an 18-year-old female employee attempted to stop them. The female suspect assaulted the employee while trying to flee. The suspects fled from the business without rendering payment for the merchandise. They were seen leaving the area in a silver Honda Civic. The 18-year-old employee sustained minor injuries.

The male suspect has been identified as 20-year-old Raquan White of New Castle. The female suspect has not been identified and was described as a black female, 20-25 of age, 5'4"-5'6" tall, 130-140 lbs., with straight black hair and wearing a denim jacket.

Raquan White currently has active warrants out of Troop 1 for Robbery 2nd and Conspiracy 2nd.

Troopers have been unable to locate White and asks if anyone has any information in reference to his whereabouts or the identity of the second suspect to please contact Troop 1, Master Corporal B. Boyd at 302-660-4251. Information may also be provided by calling Delaware Crime Stoppers at 1-800-TIP-3333, via the internet at www.delaware.crimestoppersweb.com
