UPDATE-Attempt to ID-Troopers Investigating Attempted Robbery of Valero Shore Stop-Harrington

Harrington- The Delaware State Police are investigating an attempted robbery of a Valero Shore Stop and are seeking the public's assistance in identifying the pictured suspect.

The incident occurred on November 12, 2019 at approximately 5:19 a.m., when Troopers were dispatched to the Valero Shore Stop located at 16381 S. DuPont Highway, Harrington for a report of a robbery. Upon arrival, Troopers met with a store manager who advised that a subject had entered the store, walked up to the register and demanded money. The manager advised the suspect that there was no money in the register at this time. The suspect never displayed a weapon and proceeded to walk out of the store without obtaining merchandise or cash. The manager was not injured as a result of this incident.

The suspect was described as a white male, approximately 20-30 years old, wearing all dark clothing. The suspect was seen driving away from the area in what appears to be a red/maroon sedan with Maryland registration (pictured).

The case continues to remain under investigation and anyone with information regarding the suspect's identity is asked to please contact Troop 3, Detective Dear at 302-697-4454. Information may also be provided by calling Delaware crime stoppers at 1-800-TIP-3333 or via the internet at http://www.delaware.crimestoppersweb.com
