Delaware State Police Dispatch Centers Experiencing Interruption in 911 Phone Service- Delaware

Delaware- Delaware State Police Dispatch Centers are currently experiencing a state wide interruption in service. Anyone attempting to call 911 either by cellphone or landline will experience a busy signal. At this time the issue is being addressed and it is unknown how long the 911 phone service will be unavailable. If you need to report an emergency, you are encouraged to text 911 and type your emergency in the message field.

An update will be provided once additional information is available.
