Troopers Attempt to Identify Robbery Suspect- Wilmington

Wilmington– The Delaware State Police are attempting to identify the suspect involved in a shoplifting turned robbery, which occurred at the CVS located at 1605 Telegraph Road, Wilmington.

On October 30, 2020, at approximately 11:29 a.m., an unknown white female suspect concealed multiple boxes of hair dye in her handbag. The store manager of CVS observed the theft and asked the suspect to remove the products. The suspect then removed a box cutter from her purse and pointed at the store manager. The suspect fled the store on foot northbound on Telegraph Road.

The suspect is described as a white female approximately 25-30 years-old, 5'4"-5'5" tall, and wearing a camouflage hooded sweatshirt.

Anyone with information regarding this incident or suspect should contact Cpl. Andrew Johnson with the Delaware State Police Troop 6 by calling 302-660-3828.
