Delaware State Police Seeking Public's Assistance Locating Attempted Murder Suspect-Bridgeville

Bridgeville- Delaware State Police is seeking the public's assistance with locating 38-year-old Kasandan C. Clanton of Greenwood, DE, who is wanted for Attempted Murder and related charges.

On December 4, 2020, at approximately 10:30 a.m., troopers responded to a shooting reported in the 21000 block of Mill Park Dr., Bridgeville. Through the investigation, troopers discovered Clanton and the 47-year-old victim were outside the residence speaking when witnesses reported Clanton shot the victim multiple times. During the incident, a round struck a nearby residence, but no other injuries were reported.

After the incident, Clanton fled the scene on foot and attempts to locate him have been unsuccessful. Delaware State Police are seeking the public's assistance with trying to locate Clanton. The public is urged to use caution if they come in contact with Clanton because he is considered armed and dangerous.

Delaware State Police currently have active warrants on file for Clanton's arrest for the following charges:

- Attempted Murder 1st Degree- (Felony)
- Possession of a Firearm by a Person Prohibited- (Felony)
- Reckless Endangering 1st Degree (Felony)
- Criminal Mischief Less Than $1,000
