

Delaware State Police Victim Services Unit Receives 2022 Compassionate Champion Award

We are honored to announce the Delaware State Police Victim Services Unit as a recipient of the 2022 Compassionate Champion Award. This award recognizes “outstanding achievements by both individuals and organizations in providing trauma-informed services.” In 2018, Governor John Carney signed executive order # 24 to transform Delaware into a trauma-informed state. Colonel Melissa A. Zebley received this award on behalf of the women and men of the Delaware State Police at a celebratory ceremony on June 14th, 2022. Please click on the video below to learn more about our trauma-informed practices.
