

Troopers Arrest Philadelphia Man for Felony Drug Possession

The Delaware State Police have arrested 24-year-old Kyeef Williams of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on several felony drug charges after he was found to be in possession of a large amount of narcotics. Williams was contacted yesterday afternoon during a traffic stop in Dover.

On January 12, 2023, at approximately 3:55 p.m., troopers observed Williams driving a 2019 Toyota Camry southbound on State Route 1 near the Dover Toll Plaza. Troopers were familiar with Williams and knew that he did not have a valid driver's license. A traffic stop was conducted on Williams on State Route 1 south of the Puncheon Run Connector. Troopers contacted Williams and asked him to exit the car, and he did so without incident. During the course of the stop, a narcotics canine scanned the Camry and positively alerted to the presence of drugs. A search of the car led to the discovery of approximately 465.82 grams (over one pound) of crystal methamphetamine, approximately 8.06 grams of crack cocaine, and approximately 1.05 grams of suspected heroin.

Williams was taken into custody at the scene and taken to Troop 3, where he was charged with the following offenses:

- Possession With Intent to Deliver a Controlled Substance in a Tier 3 Quantity (Felony)
- Possession of a Controlled Substance in a Tier 3 Quantity (Felony)
- Possession With Intent to Deliver a Controlled Substance (Felony) – 2 counts
- Possession of a Controlled Substance in a Tier 1 Quantity (Felony) – 2 counts

- Driving Without a Valid License

Williams was arraigned by Justice of the Peace Court 2 and committed to Sussex Correctional Institution on $122,050 cash bond.
