Delaware State Police Continue Their 100th Anniversary Celebration with Centennial Tribute

The Delaware State Police are continuing their 100th Anniversary Celebration with a Centennial Tribute. The ceremony will occur on April 28, 2023, at 11:00 a.m. on the Legislative Mall located at 411 Legislative Avenue in Dover. There will be elected officials in attendance who will speak and help commemorate the DSP’s 100 years of service to our citizens and visitors. This event will occur rain or shine. In the case of inclement weather, the event will be held indoors at Legislative Hall.

There will be parking available on Water Street and the surrounding area. A media staging area will be available on Legislative Mall close to the intersection of Legislative Avenue and Martin Luther King Jr. Boulevard.

The event is open to the public and all are welcomed and encouraged to attend.
