Troopers Arrest Man for Felony Menacing at Bowling Alley

The Delaware State Police have arrested 44-year-old Travis Driggus of Dover, Delaware for aggravated menacing and other charges after he caused a disturbance at Doverama Bowling in Dover on Saturday night.

On July 8, 2023, at approximately 11:47 p.m., troopers responded to Doverama Bowling at 1600 S. Governors Avenue for a report of a disorderly man chasing customers in the parking lot with a large razorblade. Troopers found the man, identified as Travis Driggus, in the parking lot and attempted to speak to him, but he began to flee from the area on foot. Troopers and officers from the Dover Police Department were able to detain Driggus in the front yard of a nearby residence, but were unable to find the razor. Driggus appeared to be intoxicated and was uncooperative with the investigation. No Doverama patrons were injured.

Driggus was taken to Troop 3 and charged with the following crimes:

- Possession of a Deadly Weapon During the Commission of a Felony (Felony)
- Aggravated Menacing (Felony)
- Resisting Arrest
- Breach of Release
- Criminal Trespass Second Degree

Driggus was arraigned by Justice of the Peace Court 7 and committed to Sussex Correctional Institution on $28,100 secured bond.
