Governor’s Task Force Arrests Felon Found With Gun

Last night the Delaware State Police arrested 25-year-old Raheem Fullman of Dover, Delaware for gun charges after he was found loitering in the Brightway Commons apartment complex in Milford.

On August 28, 2023, at approximately 10:00 p.m., members of the Kent County Governor’s Task Force were patrolling Brightway Commons in Milford, which is an area where concerned residents have reported frequent drug use, violent crimes, and other quality of life issues. Unit members saw probationer and convicted felon Raheem Fullman loitering outside of an apartment building in Brightway Commons, where several people were drinking alcohol and smoking marijuana. A probation officer assigned to the Governor’s Task Force asked Fullman why he was loitering outside past the Brightway Commons curfew, but he was not cooperative and was taken into custody.

As Fullman was being detained, unit members saw a handgun in his waistband. When officers took the gun they saw that it was loaded and had an obliterated serial number.

Fullman was taken to Troop 3 and charged with the following crimes:

- Possession of a Firearm by a Person Prohibited (Felony)
- Possession of a Weapon With an Obliterated Serial Number (Felony)
- Carrying a Concealed Firearm (Felony)
- Possession of a Weapon in a Safe Recreation Zone (Felony)
- Loitering

Fullman was arraigned by Justice of the Peace Court 7 and committed to Sussex Correctional Institution on $25,001 cash bond.
