

State Police Detectives Investigating Robbery of a Delivery Driver in Dover

The Delaware State Police are investigating an armed robbery of a pizza delivery driver that occurred on Tuesday evening in Dover.

On January 23, 2024, at approximately 7:46 p.m., troopers responded to a report of an armed robbery that occurred on the 2000 block of General's Way in Dover. The preliminary investigation revealed that an unknown male suspect approached the victim while she was making a delivery at the residence. The masked suspect displayed a firearm demanding money from her. The victim complied, and the suspect fled with an undisclosed amount of cash. Responding troopers searched the area for the suspect but were unable to locate him. The suspect is described as an armed unknown male wearing a mask, red sweatshirt and dark pants. At this time, surveillance video and images of the suspect are not available.

The Delaware State Police Troop 3 Criminal Investigations Unit is investigating this incident. Detectives are asking anyone with information regarding this case to contact Detective T.
