

Detectives Investigating Armed Robbery at Wilmington Area AT&T

The Delaware State Police are investigating an armed robbery at a Wilmington area AT&T that occurred on Saturday evening.

On June 22, 2024, at approximately 8:10 p.m., troopers responded to a report of an armed robbery at the AT&T located at 3601 Concord Pike in Wilmington. The preliminary investigation revealed two unknown male suspects, who were armed with firearms, entered the business and confronted an employee while demanding access to the safe. The employee complied, and the suspects stole a large quantity of electronic merchandise. The suspects then fled in an unknown direction in a white sedan.

The suspects are described as black males wearing dark-colored clothing and masks covering their faces. There is no further description available for the white sedan. Surveillance video and images of the suspects and suspect vehicle are not available.

The Delaware State Police Troop 2 Robbery Unit continues to investigate this incident. Detectives are asking anyone with information about this case to contact Detective D. Patterson by calling (302) 365-8404.
