

State Police Investigating Fatal Crash in Delmar

The Delaware State Police are investigating a two-vehicle fatal crash that occurred last night in Delmar that left one man dead.

On July 12, 2024, at approximately 9:30 p.m., a 1996 Subaru Outback was traveling southbound on Providence Church Road, approaching the intersection of Delmar Road. At the same time, a 2017 Nissan Rogue was traveling westbound on Delmar Road, approaching the intersection of Providence Church Road. The Subaru did not stop at the stop sign and entered the westbound lane of Delmar Road. As a result, the left front of the Nissan struck the left front of the Subaru in the westbound lane of Delmar Road.

The 48-year-old driver of the Subaru, a man from Salisbury, Maryland, was not wearing a seatbelt at the time of the crash, was pronounced dead at the scene. His name is being withheld until his family and relatives are notified.

The 40-year-old driver of the Nissan, a woman from Laurel, Delaware and three children passengers, sustained minor non-life-threatening injuries.

The roadway was temporarily closed for approximately 3 hours while investigators examined the scene and the roadway to be cleared.
