Update – Suspect Identified Detectives Asking for Public's Help Locating Suspect in Dover and Wilmington Bank Robberies

Delaware State Police and Dover Police Department have identified 30-year-old Enrico Mancuso as the suspect in two bank robberies that occurred in July at PNC Bank in Dover and WSFS Bank in Wilmington.

On July 9, 2024, at approximately 11:14 a.m., officers from the Dover Police Department responded to PNC Bank, located at 3 Loockerman Plaza in Dover, for a report of a robbery. The preliminary investigation revealed a light-skinned male suspect entered the bank and handed a demand note to the bank teller. The teller complied and the suspect fled on foot with an undisclosed amount of cash.

On July 16, 2024, at approximately 2:51 p.m., troopers responded to the WSFS Bank, located at 4601 Kirkwood Highway in Wilmington, for a report of a robbery. The preliminary investigation revealed an unknown white male suspect entered the bank and presented a demand note to the bank teller. The victim complied and the suspect fled on foot with an undisclosed amount of cash.

Through investigative means, Delaware State Police and Dover Police Department detectives have identified Mancuso as the suspect in both robberies and have obtained warrants for his arrest.

The Delaware State Police Troop 2 Robbery Unit and Dover Police Department continue to investigate these robberies.

Detectives are asking anyone with information as to Mancuso's whereabouts to call 9-1-1 immediately.
