Colonel William D. Crotty, Superintendent of the Delaware State Police, is proud to announce the promotion of Captain Jeremiah Lloyd to the esteemed rank of Major. In his new role as DSP's Administrative Officer, he oversees a wide range of responsibilities critical to the success of DSP, including managing the division's budget, training academy, human resources, and victim services. These key areas reflect just a portion of his broad responsibilities, as he plays a vital role in maintaining the division's operational excellence.

Major Lloyd brings a wealth of experience and a distinguished career to his new position. A 19-year veteran of the DSP, he has demonstrated exceptional leadership, innovation, and dedication in every role he has undertaken.

Before assuming this role, Major Lloyd served as Deputy Commander of Troop 2's Criminal Investigations Unit, where as a Lieutenant, he oversaw over 25 detectives and professional staff, improved investigative accountability, and spearheaded technology upgrades in the unit's interview rooms. His efforts have contributed to advancing evidence-based policing strategies and fostering collaboration with academic and community partners. Also, as a Lieutenant, he played a pivotal role in establishing the foundation of the Real Time Crime Center when it was launched in 2017. Leading a team of crime analysts and criminal intelligence officers, Major Lloyd spearheaded efforts to develop innovative strategies for statewide crime and traffic reduction. He contributed to the implementation of an upgraded statewide intelligence system, oversaw a substantial grant focused on reducing gun violence, and enhanced the division's operational communication with cutting-edge software applications.

Beyond his professional accomplishments, Major Lloyd is deeply committed to community service. He serves as the Treasurer for the Camp Barnes Board of Directors, volunteers with Special Olympics Delaware, has been a member of the Odessa Fire Company since 1995, and has been a long-standing youth football and Little League coach.
