

State Police Investigating Fatal Crash In Greenwood

Delaware State Police are investigating a fatal crash that occurred yesterday afternoon in Greenwood that left one man dead.

On May 16, 2025, at approximately 4:59 p.m., a black Toyota Prius was traveling southbound on Staytonville Road approaching the intersection of Shawnee Road in Greenwood. At the same time, a blue Nissan Sentra was traveling westbound on Shawnee Road approaching Staytonville Road. For reasons under investigation, the Toyota failed to remain stopped at the stop sign and entered the path of the Nissan. As a result, the Nissan struck the driver side of the Toyota.

The driver of the Toyota, a 77-year-old man from East Fallowfield, Pennsylvania, was taken to an area hospital where he later died. His name is being withheld until his family is notified.

The 37-year-old male driver of the Nissan, a 26-year-old female passenger, and a 5-year-old male passenger, all from Bear, Delaware, were taken to an area hospital for minor injuries.

The roadway was closed for approximately three hours while the scene was investigated and cleared.

The Delaware State Police Troop 7 Collision Reconstruction Unit continues to investigate this incident. Troopers are asking anyone who witnessed this crash to contact Senior Corporal J. Smith by calling (302) 703-3267.
