

State Police Investigating Shooting in Laurel

Delaware State Police are investigating a shooting that occurred in Laurel early Sunday morning.

On October 5, 2025, at approximately 2:00 a.m., troopers were called for a report of a shooting that occurred on US-13 northbound between Delmar and Laurel. The preliminary investigation revealed a blue Toyota Camry was traveling northbound in the left lane of US-13. At the same time, a silver Chrysler four-door sedan was traveling in the right lane, next to the Toyota. While both vehicles were in motion, the suspect, a black male, from the Chrysler fired several rounds toward the passenger side of the Toyota and fled northbound on US-13 near Scarborough Lane. The Toyota was hit by the gunfire.

There are no reported injuries. Surveillance videos and images are not available.
