

State Police Arrest Man for String of Burglaries in Newark

Delaware State Police arrested 21-year-old Isaiah Moore, of Wilmington, Delaware, for burglary and related charges in connection with multiple burglaries of a corporate center in Newark.

After troopers responded to multiple reports of burglary at the Iron Hill Corporate Center, located at 700 Prides Crossing in Newark, Delaware State Police Troop 2 Property Crimes detectives assumed the investigation and learned the following:

On August 13, 2025, at approximately 12:20 a.m., an unknown suspect somehow entered the corporate center and gained access to PC Online, one of the businesses inside. He later fled without removing any property. This incident was not originally reported to law enforcement.

On September 21, 2025, at approximately 9:30 p.m., an unknown suspect with a similar appearance, entered the corporate center and accessed PC Online again. The suspect removed various personal items from employees' desks, including credit cards. On September 22, 2025, the suspect made unauthorized purchases on those stolen credit cards.

On October 4, 2025, at approximately 3:30 a.m., an unknown suspect with a similar appearance entered the corporate center and accessed the WSFS Bank Administrative Office. The suspect removed various personal items belonging to bank employees then fled.

On October 5, 2025, at approximately 10:30 p.m., an unknown suspect with a similar appearance attempted to burglarize PC

Online but was unable to enter the business.

Between October 9, 2025, and October 10, 2025, an unknown suspect with a similar appearance entered the corporate center and gained access to the Bistro At Prides Crossing. The suspect then removed an undisclosed amount of money from the cash register.

Through investigative means, detectives identified the suspect as Isaiah Moore and obtained a warrant for his arrest. Detectives then contacted Moore, who agreed to turn himself in at Troop 6.

On October 16, 2025, Moore was charged with the below listed crimes, arraigned by Justice of the Peace Court 2, and released on his own recognizance.
