Update- Troopers Investigating Shots Fired Incident-Felton

Felton- The Delaware State Police are continuing to investigate a shooting incident that occurred on Sunday.

The incident occurred on January 19, 2020 at approximately 5:58 p.m., when Troopers were dispatched to the 1300 block of Barney Jenkins Road, Felton, for a report of multiple shots being fired. It was learned that a 19-year-old female had been struck by gunfire and privately transported to a local area hospital.

Further investigation into this incident reveled that a fight was communicated via social media due to an ongoing feud. Approximately 15-25 individuals responded to Barney Jenkins Road to witness the fight. A verbal altercation ensued between the 19-year-old female victim and another 19-year-old female. Subsequently multiple fights occurred when a black male wearing a disguise brandished a firearm and discharged multiple rounds. The 19-year-old female was struck by gunfire and remains in critical condition. There were no other injuries reported as a result of this incident.

The case continues to remain under investigation and anyone with information is asked to please contact the Delaware State Police Troop 3, Major Crimes Unit, Detective R. Wright at 302-697-4454. Information may also be provided by calling Delaware crime stoppers at 1-800-TIP-3333 or via the internet at http://www.delaware.crimestoppersweb.com

Troopers Investigating Armed Robbery – Wilmington

Wilmington – The Delaware State Police are investigating an armed robbery that took place on Marsh Rd. in north Wilmington, early Monday morning.

The incident occurred at approximately 2:00 a.m., Monday, January 20, 2020, on Marsh Rd., just north of Zebley Rd. A 40 year old male was walking along Marsh Rd. after his vehicle became disabled due to a flat tire, when he was approached by a male suspect. The suspect produced a handgun and demanded that the victim turn over the contents of his pockets, while also threatening him with bodily harm. The victim turned over an undisclosed amount of cash to the suspect who then fled on foot. The victim was not injured as a result of the incident.

The suspect was described as a white male, 5'10" tall, with a heavy build, wearing a light colored coat and a cloth covering his face.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to contact the Troop 2 Robbery Unit by calling 302-365-8566.

Troopers Attempting to Identify Domino's Pizza Burglary Suspect

Newark – The Delaware State Police are investigating a pair of burglaries at Newark area Domino's Pizza locations and are asking for the public's help in identifying one of the suspects.

The first burglary occurred between the hours of 2:00 a.m. and 5:00 a.m. on Tuesday December 31, 2019 at the Domino's located at 12 Polly Drummond Hill Rd., Polly Drummond Shopping Center in Newark. In this incident three suspects made forcible entry to the business through the rear door and then successfully accessed a safe, making off with an undisclosed amount of cash.

During the overnight hours of Sunday, January 5th into Monday, January 6th a second burglary occurred at the Domino's located at 20 Salem Village Square in Newark. In this incident forcible entry was again made through the rear door of the business, however no cash or other property was taken.

Through various investigative measures detectives were able to determine that the incidents are linked and that at least three suspects are involved. Two of the suspects can only be described as wearing all dark clothing, to include a cloth concealing their faces. One of the suspects, who is pictured in the attached surveillance images from the Polly Drummond location, has a tattoo on his left hand. No other images are available at this time.

Anyone who believes they may have information regarding the pictured suspect or these incidents are asked to contact Detective B. Harris of the Troop 2 Criminal Investigations Unit by calling 302-365-8410.
