Troopers Investigate Attempted Robbery with Suspect at Large-Millsboro

Millsboro– The Delaware State Police are currently investigating an attempted robbery and are seeking the public's assistance in locating the suspect.

On February 21, 2019, Troopers were dispatched to the 28000 block of John J. Williams Highway in reference to a robbery investigation. Upon arrival, it was learned that the victim, a 34-year-old male from Millsboro was walking in the area of the Harris Teeter's, Longneck when he came in contact with an acquaintance, 37-year-old Don D. Zakrociemski of Millsboro. The victim advised Zakrociemski that he needed to go to the M&T Bank to cash a check. Zakrociemski offered the victim a ride, and the victim subsequently entered the vehicle. Zakrociemski drove the victim to the M&T Bank, Millsboro and the victim cashed his check. When Zakrociemski and the victim left the bank, the victim realized that he was being driven in the opposite direction of where he was headed. Zakrociemski proceeded to a private lane off of John J. Williams Highway and parked the vehicle. Zakrociemski began demanding the money and a struggle ensued. The victim was able to exit the vehicle and proceeded to take off on foot. Zakrociemski proceeded to follow the victim onto private property in his vehicle and attempted to strike the victim with the vehicle. Prior to police arrival, Zakrociemski fled the scene. The victim sustained minor injuries as a result of the physical altercation and was not struck by the vehicle.

Troopers have been unable to locate Zakrociemski who currently has active warrants out of Troop 4 for the following:

- Attempted to Commit Robbery Second Degree
- Reckless Endanger First Degree
- Assault Third Degree
- Criminal Mischief

Anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of Zakrociemski, is asked to please contact Troop 4, Major Crimes Unit, Detective Williams-Snipes at 302-856-5850. Information may also be provided by calling Delaware crime stoppers at 1-800-TIP-3333 or via the internet at http://www.delaware.crimestoppersweb.com

UPDATE Troopers Investigating Vehicle into Pond SR 1 Northbound at New Discovery Rd.– Townsend

Townsend – The Delaware State Police Collision Reconstruction Unit is continuing to investigate a single vehicle crash that occurred at approximately 1:06 p.m., Wednesday, February 20, 2019 on State Route 1 northbound in the area of New Discovery Rd., Townsend.

The initial investigation has determined that a 2016 Hyundai Sonata, operated by a 35 year old Dagsboro woman, was traveling northbound on the curved portion of State Route 1, just north of New Discovery Rd. The operator, who was the sole occupant of the vehicle, lost control on the snow covered roadway, at which time the vehicle slid off the east edge of the roadway and down a snow covered grass embankment, entering into a retention pond. The vehicle became completely submerged in the water and the victim was unable to exit the vehicle. The victim was extricated from the vehicle by rescue divers, and then transported to the Christiana Hospital, where she was pronounced deceased.

Identification of the victim is pending notification of next of kin.

The investigation is ongoing and anyone with information regarding the incident is asked to contact Sgt. D. Alexander of the Troop 2 Collision Reconstruction Unit by calling 302-365-8484.
