

Troopers Investigating Serious Crash – Middletown

Middletown, Delaware– The Delaware State Police are investigating a serious crash that occurred yesterday during the early morning hours.

The incident occurred on Saturday, December 8, 2018 at approximately 3:04 a.m., when troopers responded to Summit Bridge Road (SR 301) north of Victoria Drive, Middletown for a report of a motor vehicle collision. A 2006 Pontiac GT0, operated by a 23 year old man of Middletown was traveling southbound in the right lane on Summit Bridge Road. A 2013 GMC Pickup, operated by 30 year-old man of Newark, was traveling northbound on Summit Bridge Road (301) and for unknown reasons he lost control causing the truck to rotate 45 degrees counter clockwise and veered over the median for approx 300 feet. The pick-up truck then went across both southbound lanes and over-corrected and veered back across the lanes in a northeast direction. At this time the Pontiac was traveling in the left lane southbound on Summit Bridge Road (301) and the front bumper of sedan struck the driver side of the pick-up. The pick-up truck's rear axle drove over the Pontiac which caused the rear axle of the truck to completely break off and continue southbound until it stopped on the westbound shoulder. The pick-up truck then rotated in the air until it landed on its driver side and skidded across the road until it stopped on westbound shoulder. The Pontiac GT0 rotated almost 360 degrees until it stopped off on the westbound shoulder on the southbound side.

The pick-up driver, who was seatbelted, was transported to the Christiana Hospital with minor injuries. He was cited Failure to have Insurance Identification and Careless Driving.

The driver of the Pontiac GT0, who was seatbelted, was flown to the Christiana Hospital with serious injuries.

The crash continues to remain under investigation by the Delaware State Police. Summit Bridge Road in the area of the crash was closed for 2.5 hours while the crash was investigated and cleared.

Verizon Scam Alert Advisory

The Delaware State Police is providing a Scam Alert Advisory. This is a general alert which covers any part of the State of Delaware.

The Delaware State Police have recently received a complaint from a citizen in Kent County concerning a phone call from an individual stating they are with Verizon. The person claiming to be from Verizon said the network was switching from 4G to 5G and the service would experience issues in the next few days. The caller claimed, in order to avoid issues with service, an account reset is needed. The victim received a password reset email and provided the confirmation code to the caller to reset the account. The caller then instructed the victim to turn off the cell phone to complete the account reset and network update. The victim turned the cell phone on and moments later received another email from Verizon confirming his order for an Apple Ipad tablet. The order was made in the victim's name and was set to be shipped. Verizon was notified of the incident.

Taking steps to prevent identity theft can greatly reduce the chances of becoming a victim. Below are a few suggestions for protecting yourself online and offline.

- Shred all documents containing Personally Identifying Information such as your Social Security Number, your credit card or account numbers, even your middle name. This can include bank or credit card statements, pre-approval letters, or utility bills. If you aren't sure, shred it before discarding it. Use locked filing cabinet or a document safe for important documents that you want to keep.
- Protect all of your online passwords. Don't store them on paper or in unsecured files.
- Be cautious when showing personally identifying information on social media sites.

- Be wary of callers that are providing you information on your account and then ask you to provide basic account information.
- Validate promotional offers with the company before logging into your online account to accept them. For example, if you get an email promising a $30 bill credit of your wireless bill, do some research online to see if it's a scam. When in doubt, contact the company directly to validate the offer.
- Secure your internet connection. Using public wifi connections may place you at risk for a fraudster to obtain the information stored on your computer or smartphone.
- Regularly monitor your credit report for unusual or unauthorized activity. Many sites offer a free credit report for a promise to subscribe to additional services. Under the Fair Credit Act, you are entitled to a free credit report from the reporting agencies.

Information provided through the Verizon website located at:
<https://www.verizonwireless.com/fraud/>

For more information on identity theft, please visit www.consumer.ftc.gov/topics/privacy-identity

Anyone with information in reference to this incident is asked to please contact Troop 4, Detective Powell at 302-856-5850. Information may also be provided by calling Delaware crime stoppers at 1-800-TIP-3333 or via the internet at

Many of these scams are difficult to investigate. They will target persons of all age groups. Delaware State Police is asking citizens to remember the tips previously mentioned in order to not become a victim of one of these scam artists.

Troopers Make Annual Holiday Visits

This week the Delaware State Police, with the support of the Delaware State Troopers Association (DSTA), made their annual holiday visits to schools and hospitals throughout the state.

Troopers had the honor of escorting Santa and Mrs. Claus, Miss Delaware 2018 Joanna Wicks, along with other beloved characters, as they interacted with the children, in the hopes of spreading some holiday cheer.

In New Castle County, a visit was made to the Nemours/Alfred I. du Pont Hospital for Children, where lunch was provided to the children and their families, courtesy of the DSTA. During the luncheon, the children were able to play games and make holiday crafts, provided by the hospital's Child Life

Department, as well as having the opportunity to visit with Santa.

Troopers then escorted Santa and his friends, as he delivered gifts to patients in their rooms, who were unable to attend the luncheon. In all, over 200 patients received an early Christmas present, also provided by the Child Life Department. This marks the 21st year, that the Delaware State Troopers Association has sponsored the Troopers visit to the hospital.

In Kent County, Troopers escorted Santa and his friends to the Secret Garden Day Care, the Kent County Community School and the Charlton School.

In Sussex County, visits were made to Morris Elementary School in Lincoln, as well as the Howard T. Ennis School and the Stockley Center, both in Georgetown.

While these visits are intended to bring smiles to the faces of the children, there is no denying that the Troopers who participate, receive an equal amount of joy in return.

These visits are just another way that the Delaware State Police strives to accomplish their intended mission of: “Enhancing the quality of life for all Delaware Citizens and visitors by providing professional, competent and compassionate law enforcement services.”

Honoring the Memory of Delaware State Troopers

The Delaware State Police Memorial Service was held at the Saint Polycarp Church on Monday, December 3, 2018 where our brethren honored and remembered the service and ultimate sacrifice of our 33 fallen brothers and sisters. During the Heroes' Roll Call, the families and friends of the fallen placed a rose on the table that held the trooper's campaign hat- a revered symbol of all Delaware State Troopers. May God bless those who wear the uniform.

The delegation of speakers, during the ceremony, included the Attorney General of Delaware, Matthew Denn, Secretary of Safety and Homeland Security, Robert Coupe, Superintendent of the Delaware State Police, Colonel Nathaniel McQueen Jr. and the President of the Concerns of Police Survivors, Mrs. Eleanor Allione.

The Most Reverend Bishop W. Francis Malooly and the Delaware State Police Chaplains, Florence Cephas and William Coco, offered kind words and prayers for our fallen brothers and sisters, our survivors and for the protection and safety of our troopers providing us with continued hope and restoring our faith in our commitment to service.

Most Reverend Bishop W. Francis Malooly said, "...Today once again, I simply thank you for all you do. We are so grateful and I'm very happy that every year you come to join the families who have lost loved ones and support them. That comradery that you have exhibited always is so significant not only in your day to day work but, in respecting and loving those who have come before us. We gather to remember and we pray each day for you and for your safety. You are a light and a presence of God for us. You provide safety and protection for us citizens and for that we are all very grateful."

Attorney General Matthew Denn said, "Events like this are critical to remind us that at the end of the day, the backbone of law enforcement and the heart of law enforcement are men and women who, everyday go to work and put themselves in harm's way so the rest of us can be safe and that always has to be front and center for us so it's very important that we have this Delaware State Police Memorial Service...Events like this where we can look you in the eye in the space of this ole' church with the sound of the Pipes and Drums echoing of the walls and say we remember your child, we remember your sibling, we remember your parent and say thank you for what they have done. I want to say thank you to the Delaware State Police for ensuring this event goes on in the future!"

Secretary of Safety and Homeland Security, Robert Coupe said, "I have had the honor to stand before you many times here at Saint Polycarp's since I was appointed Colonel in 2009 and each time I prepare to stand before you I search to find the words to describe the significance of these moments. We are here together as a family honoring our fallen brothers and sisters and to reassure you that we will never forget your loved ones and the sacrifice they made serving as Delaware State Troopers...What I want to say is thank you, thank you for coming today and sharing this day with us so we can remember and honor your loved ones, our brothers and sisters. While we are saddened as we think of those we have lost; may we be uplifted as we think of the joyful times that we shared with them and as we hear stories of their service and may your presence today strengthen our courage and our faith – you inspire us. It is our hope that this celebration of life somehow provides you with strength for the day and some comfort for your tears. There are some troopers whose names will be called today that served before many of us were even born and that is a reminder of why this memorial service is so important to fulfill our promise to all troopers that we shall never forget; their service and their sacrifice. We are grateful to all that are here today to fulfill that promise. We love you and we too, miss your loved ones, our brothers and sisters, our heroes; they are gone, but not forgotten. May God bless you and keep you safe.”

Superintendent of the Delaware State Police, Colonel Nathaniel McQueen Jr. said, today, we are here to lift each other, support our survivors, and honor the memory of Delaware State Troopers who gave their lives in the line of duty and those who have lost their lives while so proudly serving the citizens of this great state. Although today is clearly a solemn occasion, the dedication and courage of our heroes is an enduring source of inspiration to us all...Our heartfelt sympathies go out to our colleagues and all agencies in our extended law enforcement family who have experienced the loss of an officer this year...I am often asked if police work is more difficult and more dangerous today, do troopers face more risks? The reality is that law enforcement has and continues to come with significant risks and the headlines do nothing to dispel or calm our thoughts that our world has become more dangerous. As the risk continues, we strive each and every day to welcome the prayers, to work through the pain, to embrace the pride, to focus on progress and to keep our promise. We welcome the prayers for the protection and safety of our troopers, as they give us hope and restore our faith and commitment to service. Pain, we know that the pain never goes away but we can work through it day by day when the thoughts of our heroes comes rushing back we work through the pain by supporting and strengthening each other and focusing on the good times and the wonderful things that remind us of their commitment and service. (Pride) As we think of the things that make us laugh the stories of their accomplishments, we are filled with pride. How proud we are of their service and grateful for their sacrifice. (Progress) As an agency we must also focus on the progress. The progress of a grateful agency, the progress of better equipment, technology and best practices that can help keep our troopers and communities safer. (Promise) As we continue our storied history as an agency. We will always keep our promise. Our promise...to honor our fallen, support our survivors, strengthen each other and to never forget. Every trooper past and present can be proud of the qualities embodied in their selflessness dedication, commitment and devotion of those we honor here today. Their giving of self also serves to remind us of our vulnerability as human beings and the dangers inherent in the lawful profession. Our commitment to service will never waiver and we will remain committed to service and the safety of our communities."

Operations Officer for New Castle County Major Melissa Zebley said, "Since the late 1950's all Delaware State Troopers have worn the blue campaign hat, the hat is worn year round in hot and cold temperatures and in dry and wet conditions. The hat is a symbol of the Delaware State Police, it represents all troopers past and present. At this time, the Delaware State Police Honor Guard will place a campaign hat at the alter in representation of all of our fallen troopers."

During the ceremony Retired Delaware State Police Sergeant Hal Blades recalled the "Retired Troopers Remembrance" followed by Major Melissa Zebly Placing of the Campaign Hat with a reading of the "Heroes Roll Call" by Major Daniel Meadows giving each family an opportunity to place a long stemmed red-rose on the table next to the campaign hat-a symbol of every trooper-to honor their loved ones who made the ultimate sacrifice. Taps sounded after the last rose by, Sergeant Jonathan E. Packard. The Delaware State Police Chaplains blessed the Saint Michael's Medals, a symbol of God's protection for law enforcement. The service was blessed to have everyone join and sing "America the Beautiful." The Delaware State Police Pipes & Drums and Honor Guard led the ceremony's processional and recessional to close the ceremony with the hymn, "Amazing Grace".

*UPDATE-Arrest Made* Troopers Investigating a Rash of Burglaries- New Castle County

New Castle: The Delaware State Police have identified and charged two Maryland men in connection with an overnight burglary spree that took place in August, 2018.

On Sunday, August 19, 2018 between the hours of 3:07 a.m. and 3:26 a.m., Troopers handled a total of five burglaries to businesses on Naamans Road in Wilmington. A sixth burglary occurred just over an hour later at approximately 4:44 a.m. in the Newark area. The businesses burglarized consisted of pharmacies and cellular phone stores.

Through a variety of investigative measures and leads, detectives were able to positively identify and link Anthony Smith, 32 of Bowie, MD and Stefon Janey, 26 of Upper Marlboro MD, to all six burglaries.

During the course of the burglary investigation detectives obtained evidence which also linked Smith and Janey to three incidents that occurred in May 2018 which were being investigated by the Delaware State Police Drug Diversion Unit. In these incidents Smith and Janey were able to make access to the pharmacies at three Acme grocery stores located in New Castle County, during normal business hours, and make off with prescription medications.

Based on the findings from both investigations warrants were obtained on November 11, 2018, charging Smith and Janey with the following:

- Burglary 3rd Degree (6 counts)
- Wearing a Disguise during the Commission of a Felony (6 counts)
- Conspiracy 2nd Degree (9 counts)
- Possession of Burglary Tools (5 counts)
- Theft greater than $1500.00 (2 counts)
- Theft less than $1500.00 (3 counts)
- Criminal Mischief (6 counts)
- Drug Theft (3 counts)

On Thursday, December 6, 2018 Smith was extradited from Virginia back to Delaware and while at Troop 2 he was formally charged and then arraigned in Justice of the Peace Court 2. He was then committed to the Howard R. Young Correctional Institution in lieu of $61,000.00 secured bail.

Janey is currently being detained in Prince Georges County MD, pending extradition back to Delaware at which time he will be formally charged.
