Troopers Apprehend New Jersey Fugitive Wanted in Connection with 2013 Murder

New Castle – The Delaware State Police have arrested Norman Kacewich, 30, formerly of Fairfield Township, New Jersey on an out of state fugitive warrant, in reference to a 2013 New Jersey State Police murder investigation.

On Wednesday, November 28, 2018 at approximately 9:26 p.m., Troopers responded to the Delaware Auto Court, located at 235 S. DuPont Hwy., after receiving information that a subject wanted in connection with a New Jersey murder investigation was staying at the motel. Troopers were able to secure the perimeter of the property while attempting to determine the validity of the information as well as identifying the specific location of the suspect. Through a variety of investigative measures a male subject, who would later be positively identified as Kacewich, was located in one of the rooms and taken in to custody without incident. . Kacewich initially provided a false name however during the course of a subsequent interview he admitted to being the wanted subject.

After confirming Kacewich’ s identity Troopers were able to confirm that he was wanted out of the Cumberland County (N.J.) Prosecutor’s Office for one count each of Desecration of Human Remains and Hindering Prosecution. The charges stem from Kacewich’s role in helping to bury the body of a murder victim.

Kacewich was arraigned on an Out of State Fugitive warrant and then committed to the Howard R. Young Correctional Institution, pending extradition back to New Jersey.

Troopers Arrest Wilmington Man for 4th Offense DUI and Weapons Offenses after Vehicle Crash

Wilmington (19804) – The Delaware State Police have charged Jason W. Carroll, 31 of Wilmington with multiple weapons and traffic related offenses after he was involved in a collision while under the influence of alcohol.

At approximately 10:24 p.m., on Friday, November 23, 2018 Troopers responded to Centerville Rd. in the area of Boxwood Rd., for the report of a three vehicle crash. The investigation determined that a 2012 Ford F-350 pick-up truck operated by Carroll had rear ended a 2008 Dodge Nitro, which was then forced into a 2001 Honda Odyssey. Upon making contact with Carroll, Troopers could smell an odor of alcohol at which time they initiated a DUI investigation. The subsequent investigation determined that Carroll was under the influence of alcohol at the time of the collision and that he has three prior convictions for DUI. A search of the passenger compartment of Carroll's pick-up truck produced a 7.62 Norinco Samozaryadny Karabin (SKS) rifle along with 2 fully loaded 30 round magazines.

Carroll was taken in to custody without incident and then transported to Troop 6 where he was charged with the following offenses:

- DUI 4th Offense
- Possession of a Firearm or Ammunition by a Person Prohibited (2 counts)
- Carrying a Concealed Deadly Weapon
- Possession of a Firearm While Under the Influence

- Inattentive Driving
- No Proof of Insurance
- No Proof of Registration

He was then arraigned in Justice of the Peace Court #2 and released after posting $3000.00 secured bond.

Troopers Investigating Fatal Crash – Camden-Wyoming

Camden – The Delaware State Police Troop 3 Collision Reconstruction Unit is continuing to investigate a single vehicle crash that occurred early Saturday morning which has claimed the life of a Hartly man.

The incident occurred at approximately 12:57 a.m., Saturday, November 24, 2018 on Willow Grove Rd. just west of Steeles Ridge Rd., Camden-Wyoming. A 2002 Chevy Trailblazer operated by William E. Clough, 35, of Hartly was traveling westbound on Willow Grove Rd., at an apparent high rate of speed, when he lost control on a curve at which time the vehicle began spinning. The Chevy continued to spin and traveled off the north side of the road before overturning, causing Clough to be ejected from the vehicle.

Clough was transported to Kent General Hospital with life threatening injuries but ultimately succumbed to those injuries and was pronounced deceased on Sunday, November 25.

Clough was not seat belted at the time of the crash, speed and impairment are being considered as contributing factors.

Willow Grove Rd. was closed for approximately 3 hours while the scene was investigated and cleared.

Troopers Arrest Frederica Man after a Stolen Pit Bull Mauled a 4-Year-Old Boy – Frederica

Frederica, Delaware – Delaware State Troopers responded to a report of a dog attack yesterday afternoon in Frederica.

On Sunday, November 25, 2018 at approximately 12:36 p.m., troopers responded to the 100 block of Fifth Street, Frederica for a dog attack of a four year old boy. It was reported the suspect, Roger O. Scarborough trespassed onto a yard on Jackson Street, Federica and stole a Pit Bull dog. Scarborough then fled with the dog, restrained only by a bungee cord, to Fifth Street where a four year boy was on his bicycle near his residence. It was at this point the dog viciously attacked the little boy while he played near his residence. The mother of the boy and a friend struggled to free the boy from the dog and were able to get the pit-bull off of the child, but only after sustaining serious injuries themselves.

The four year old boy was transported to the Kent General Hospital where it was determined that he had a lacerations to his right shoulder, face, back of his neck, and scalp. Due to his injuries he was transported to the Nemours/Alfred I. DuPont Hospital for Children where his is currently listed in stable condition.

The boy's mother, 39 of Frederica, was transported to the Kent General Hospital. She was treated for two open fractures to her left hand, along with a puncture wound to her right leg.

The friend, 35 of Frederica, was transported to the Kent General Hospital where he was treated for several lacerations to his right hand.

Roger O. Scarborough, 62 of Frederica, was taken into custody by responding troopers and transported to Troop 3, Camden, Delaware. Scarborough was charged with Reckless Endanger 1st Degree – Creates a Substantial Risk of Death to Another, two counts of Reckless Endangering 2nd Degree, Criminal Trespass 3rd Degree, and Theft. Roger O. Scarborough was arraigned before the Justice of the Peace Court 7 and was committed to the Sussex Correctional Institution in default of $6,500.00 secured bond.

The Pit Bull dog was turned over to the Delaware Office of Animal Welfare to be quarantined and the owner has to provide proof the dog was vaccinated against rabies. This incident remains under investigation.

Troopers, ATF Investigating Milton Gun Shop Burglary – Reward Offered

Milton – The Delaware State Police along with agents from the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF) are currently investigating the burglary of a Milton area gun shop that has resulted in the theft of multiple firearms.

The incident occurred at approximately 7:00 a.m. on Thursday, November 22, 2018, at Hopkins Gun Shop, located at 18647 Josephs Road, Milton. Troopers responded to the scene along with Special Agents and Industry Operations Investigators from ATF Baltimore's, Wilmington Field Office, and determined that an unidentified person wearing a mask, made forcible entry into the business in the early morning hours and stole multiple firearms, including handguns and rifles, before fleeing undetected. ATF and Delaware State Police continue working jointly on this investigation.

The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF) Baltimore Field Division and the National Shooting Sports Foundation (NSSF), the trade association for the firearms industry, have announced a combined reward of up to $10,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person responsible for the theft of firearms from Hopkins Gun Shop, a federal firearms licensee (FFL).

ATF is offering a reward of up to $5,000, which will be matched by the NSSF for a total reward of up to $10,000. This reward is part of a larger national cooperative initiative between the NSSF and ATF in which NSSF matches ATF rewards in cases involving the theft of firearms from federally licensed firearms retailers.

ATF is the lead federal law enforcement agency with jurisdiction involving firearms and violent crimes, and regulates the firearm industry. More information about ATF and its programs is available at www.atf.gov.

To provide tips to ATF, call 888-ATF-TIPS (888-283-8477) or send an email to ATFTips@atf.gov. Tips can also be sent anonymously via the reportit® app using ATF Baltimore Field Division as the location. It is available through the Google Play Store, Apple App Store, and at www.reportit.com.
