Drug Investigation Leads to Arrest of Multiple Suspects-Lewes

Lewes– The Delaware State Police concluded a month long drug investigation that led to the arrest of multiple suspects on several drug and other related charges.

During the month of June 2018, Troop 7 patrol units and detectives from the Rehoboth Beach Police Department developed information regarding the sale of drugs occurring in the 17000 block of Callaway Drive, Fairway Village. Investigators determined that the residence was occupied by 34-year-old Chelsea Coffin and 41-year-old Aaron Jones, and was also frequented by 17-year-old Talim Muhammad-Hunt of Philadelphia and 20-year-old Demetrius Greene of Lewes.

On Thursday July 12, 2018, at approximately 2:20 p.m., Troopers observed Hunt and Green exiting the residence and walking over to the Midway Movie Theater where they made contact with a female, identified as 26-year-old Felicia N. League of Rehoboth Beach, by telephone. League was observed responding to the residence in Fairway Village where she obtained a large gray metal box. League entered into a vehicle and began traveling towards the movie theater. A traffic stop was conducted and contact was made with the driver, a 47-year-old male from Salisbury MD, and League. A search of the vehicle revealed a grey lock box, over $300.00 in cash and drug paraphernalia. The driver was found in possession of 9.5 pills containing approximately 7.5 mg of Hydrocodone. Both the driver and League were taken into custody without incident.

As Hunt exited the movie theater, he was contacted by police and found to be in possession of over $2,400.00 in cash.

Greene who was located hiding in the bathroom of the movie theater was found in possession of 20 small plastic vials containing crack cocaine and a quantity of marijuana.

All subjects were transported back to Troop 7. A search warrant was obtained for the residence as well as the gray lock box. Upon execution of the search warrant, the lock box was found to contain 651 bags (approx. 4.557 grams) of heroin, 3.01 grams of powder cocaine, 159 plastic vials containing 11.58 grams of crack cocaine and a small quantity of marijuana. Troopers Arrest Two Suspects For Home Invasion- Magnolia

Magnolia- Delaware State Police have arrested two suspects in connection with a home invasion that occurred last evening.

The incident occurred on Wednesday, July 11, 2018 at approximately 8:15 p.m. when Troopers were dispatched to the unit block of Whispering Lane for a report of a home invasion. Prior to arriving at the scene, a Trooper observed a suspect matching the description provided, fleeing the area. This suspect, identified as 24-year-old Paul Dixon 3rd of Magnolia was taken into custody without incident. A further search of the area with the assistance of the Harrington Police Department, led to the capture of the second suspect, 18-year-old Terry R. McIntire Jr. of Seaford who was hiding in thick briers.

The investigation revealed that Dixon and McIntire, who were both wearing disguises covering their faces, had entered the unsecured residence through the front door and confronted a 41-year-old male resident. Dixon was armed with a stun gun and McIntire was armed with an airsoft gun that resembled a semi-automatic handgun, when they demanded property from the victim. The victim turned over his cell phone, and the suspects proceeded to the rear bedroom where they confronted the homeowner, a 71-year-old male. McIntire pointed the airsoft gun at the 71-year-old male and demanded property, at which time pill bottles and a wallet were taken.

Both suspects were transported back to Troop 3 where they were charged with 2 counts of Robbery First Degree, Home Invasion, Aggravated Menacing, Wearing a Disguise During the Commission of a Felony, Conspiracy Second Degree, Resisting Arrest, and Carrying a Concealed Dangerous Instrument. They were arraigned before the Justice of the Peace Court 7 and committed to the James T. Vaughn Correctional Center on $72,000.00 secured bond.
