

State Police Arrest Woman for Assault at the Delaware State Fair in Harrington

The Delaware State Police arrested 28-year-old Caitlynn Scott of Lincoln, Delaware, for a felony assault charge stemming from an incident at the Delaware State Fair in Harrington on Friday morning. Additionally, a 26-year-old man from Milford, Delaware, was arrested for a misdemeanor assault related offense following the incident.

On July 25, 2025, at approximately 11:15 a.m., troopers responded to Gate 7 at the Delaware State Fair, located at 200 Simpson Road, Harrington, for a report of an assault. In the ensuing investigation, troopers learned the victim was involved in an argument with an acquaintance, later identified as the 26-year-old man, while he was driving her to a destination in Sussex County. The argument resolved with the victim requesting to be dropped off at Harrington Casino instead. Once they arrived at Gate 7, the 26-year-old man forcibly removed the victim from the vehicle. The victim reached back into the vehicle to retrieve her purse, at which point the rear passenger, later identified as Caitlynn Scott, pepper sprayed the victim. The suspects then fled in an unknown direction. The victim was taken to an area hospital for injuries sustained from the chemical spray to her face.

Troopers located the suspect vehicle in Milford, and conducted a traffic stop. During the stop, troopers made contact with Scott, and the 26-year-old male, both of whom were taken into custody without incident. Scott and the 26-year-old male were taken to Troop 3, where the male was charged with a misdemeanor offense.

Scott was charged with the crime below, arraigned by Justice of the Peace Court 2, and released on a $3,000 unsecured bond.

- Assault 2nd Degree (Felony)

State Police Arrest Man for Attempted Strong-Arm Robbery in Claymont

The Delaware State Police arrested 37-year-old Leroy Buchanan of Wilmington, Delaware, for an attempted strong-arm robbery that occurred in Claymont on Wednesday morning.

On July 23, 2025, at approximately 5:41 a.m., troopers responded to a report of an attempted robbery that occurred at Dunkin' Donuts, located at 3224 Philadelphia Pike in Claymont. The preliminary investigation revealed that the victim had placed her suitcase in front of the Dunkin' Donuts when a black male suspect approached, and took it. The victim confronted the suspect, and recovered her suitcase then entered the Dunkin' Donuts. The suspect followed the victim into the business, and began striking her while pulling her out of the business and demanding the suitcase. The suspect ultimately fled on foot in an unknown direction without the victim's property. The victim was not injured.

Troopers searched the area for the suspect, and located a male matching the suspect's description as he was walking southbound on Philadelphia Pike. Troopers made contact with the male, identified as Leroy Buchanan, and discovered he was the suspect responsible for the attempted robbery.

Buchanan was taken to Troop 1, where he was charged with the crimes listed below, arraigned by Justice of the Peace Court 2, and released on a $2,500 unsecured bond.

- Attempted to Commit Robbery 2nd Degree (Felony)
- Offensive Touching

State Police Arrest Man for Vehicular Homicide in Fatal Hit-and-Run Collision in Milton

The Delaware State Police arrested 22-year-old Tahrie Calloway of Claymont, Delaware, for vehicular homicide and traffic-related charges following a fatal hit-and-run collision yesterday morning in Milton.

On July 26, 2025, at approximately 7:39 a.m., a 2017 Honda Accord was traveling northbound on Sand Hill Road, approaching Burton Road in Milton. At the same time, a bicyclist was traveling along the eastern edge of the roadway on Sand Hill Road northbound, just ahead of the Honda. The preliminary investigation revealed the front right of the Honda struck the bicyclist as the Honda passed, which caused the bicyclist to be thrown into the grass. After the impact, the Honda did not stop, and fled from the scene of the collision.

The bicyclist, a 67-year-old man from Milford, Delaware, was taken to an area hospital, where he was pronounced dead. His name is being withheld until his family and relatives are notified.

The driver of the Honda, later identified as Tahrie Calloway, was found with the disabled Honda approximately 1 mile north of the collision scene by EMS personnel. Through investigative means, troopers discovered the damage to the Honda was consistent with the hit-and-run collision, and Calloway was taken into custody without incident. During the investigation, troopers observed multiple signs of impairment from Calloway, including the odor of an alcoholic beverage emanating from his breath. In the ensuing DUI investigation, impairment was suspected to be a factor at the time of the crash.

Calloway was taken to Troop 4, where he was charged with the crimes listed below, arraigned by Justice of the Peace Court 3, and committed to Sussex Correctional Institution on a $18,101 cash bond.

- Vehicular Homicide 2nd Degree (Felony)
- Leaving the Scene of a Collision Resulting in Death (Felony)
- Tampering with Physical Evidence (Felony)
- Driving Under the Influence
- Inattentive Driving

Detectives Arrest Man for Strong-Arm Robbery in Newark

The Delaware State Police arrested 30-year-old Erik Yancey of New Castle, Delaware, for a strong-arm robbery that occurred in Newark on Wednesday night.

On July 24, 2025, at approximately 12:09 a.m., troopers responded to a report of a robbery that occurred a short time earlier in the parking lot of Moon Spa, located at 1919 Capitol Trail in Newark. The preliminary investigation revealed that the victim was entering his vehicle in the parking lot when he was approached by an unknown black male suspect. The suspect opened the driver's door, and demanded the victim's property while holding his hand wrapped in a cloth, implying a firearm. The suspect threatened to shoot the victim, and punched him. The suspect then stole the victim's personal property, and fled on foot behind the business. The victim then drove to a nearby business, where an employee called 9-1-1. The victim sustained minor injuries.

Through investigative means, troopers identified the suspect involved in the robbery as Erik Yancey. Detectives further discovered Yancey had used the victim's credit card in Wilmington. On July 25, 2025, detectives located Yancey in Wilmington, and took him into custody.

Yancey was taken to Troop 2, where he was charged with the crimes listed below, arraigned by Justice of the Peace Court

2, and committed to Howard R. Young Correctional Institution on a $51,000 cash bond.

- Robbery 1st Degree (Felony)

Troopers Arrest Teen for Attempting to Steal a Motor Vehicle from Eisenberg Elementary School in New Castle

Delaware State Police arrested a 13-year-old male from Wilmington, Delaware, for multiple felony offenses following an attempted theft of a motor vehicle from Harry O. Eisenberg Elementary School's parking lot on Tuesday afternoon.

On July 22, 2025, at approximately 4:57 p.m., troopers responded to Harry O. Eisenberg Elementary School, located at 27 Landers Lane, New Castle, for a report of a fight. In the ensuing investigation, troopers learned the 64-year-old victim returned to his Ford Transit van in the school's parking lot, and found approximately 3-4 teenage suspects in the vehicle. The victim confronted the suspects, and ran after them as they fled from the vehicle. While fleeing, one of the suspects, later identified as the 13-year-old male, pointed an orange flare gun at the victim. The victim ultimately caught up to the 13-year-old, and stopped him from fleeing, during which the suspect punched the victim. Arriving troopers took the 13-year-old into custody without incident, and recovered the flare gun from him.

During the investigation, troopers discovered the Ford's driver side door had been damaged by the suspects, and a screwdriver was shoved into the vehicle's ignition. This type of damage is consistent with the nationwide trend of vehicles being stolen using a screwdriver. The suspect's co-conspirators were not located, and have not been identified at this time.

The suspect was taken to Troop 2, where he was charged with crimes listed below, arraigned by New Castle County Family Court, and committed to New Castle County Detention Center on a $26,200 cash bond.

- Attempted to Commit Theft of a Motor Vehicle (Felony)
- Possession of a Deadly Weapon During the Commission of a Felony (Felony)
- Aggravated Menacing (Felony)
- Possession of Burglar Tools (Felony)
- Conspiracy 2nd Degree (Felony)
