Edited July 24, 2025|2:53 p.m.

Delaware State Police are investigating several fraud-related thefts that occurred at Sartin Memorials/Absolute Granite Liquidator in Bear over the last year. Detectives are seeking assistance in identifying potential victims associated with this ongoing theft investigation.

On July 4, 2025, troopers responded to Sartin Memorials/Absolute Granite Liquidator, 4376 Kirkwood Saint Georges Road, Bear, for a report of a theft that occurred over the last year. As of June 2025, the headstone had been paid for, but had not been installed. The victims made several attempts to contact the business, but were unsuccessful. Troopers have reason to believe there are additional unidentified victims that have paid for headstones as early as 2023, and the orders have not been fulfilled, totaling over approximately $14,500 in stolen payments.

On May 29, 2025, detectives began investigating a late-reported attempted robbery that occurred two days earlier in the parking lot of the PNC Bank, located at 1704 Marsh Road. The initial investigation revealed that the victim was approached by an unknown suspect who demanded money before fleeing the scene. The victim was not injured.
