Pennsylvania Man Succumbs to Injuries Sustained in Weekend Collision

Wilmington (19809) – The Delaware State Police Collision Reconstruction Unit continues the investigation of a motor vehicle crash which occurred on September 16th and that has claimed the life of a Pennsylvania man.

The investigation thus far has determined that the crash occurred on Saturday, September 16, 2017 at approximately 5:44 p.m., as a 26-year-old Wilmington male was operating a 2011 Volkswagen GTI and was traveling in a westbound direction on Cauffiel Parkway, attempting to cross the northbound lanes of Philadelphia Pike. As the Volkswagen entered the left hand lane of northbound Philadelphia Pike, its left side was struck by a 2014 Honda Accord, which was being operated by Edwin Jamieson, 70, of Aston, PA. After the impact both vehicles came to rest in the southbound lanes of Philadelphia Pike just north of the intersection with Bellevue Parkway.

Edwin Jamieson, who was properly restrained at the time of the crash, was treated at the scene by New Castle County Paramedics. He was then transported by EMS to the Wilmington Hospital where he was admitted for his injuries. He was cited by troopers with Failure to Stop at a Red Light. The Delaware State Police Collision Reconstruction Unit was subsequently contacted and advised that Edwin Jamieson succumbed to his injuries at the hospital on Sunday, September 24.

A 70-year-old female passenger in Jamieson's vehicle, who was also properly restrained at the time of the crash, was treated at the scene by paramedics. She was then transported to the Wilmington Hospital where she was treated for her non-life threatening injuries.

The male operator, and sole occupant of the Volkswagen, was also treated at the scene before being transported to the Wilmington Hospital where he was admitted for his non-life threatening injuries. He was also properly restrained at the time of the crash.

This crash remains under investigation by the Delaware State Police.

New Castle Man Charged Following Serious Assault

Wilmington (19801) – Delaware State Police have arrested a New Castle man and charged him in connection with the serious assault of a male subject which occurred at an area motel last weekend.

The initial investigation began on Saturday, September 23, 2017, at approximately 6:45 p.m. after troopers observed an argument occurring between a male and a female in the area of the Fairview Inn, located at 1051 S. Market Street. As troopers intervened, they learned that the two subjects were arguing over the assault of a 48-year-old male which had just occurred at the motel. Troopers further learned that the male victim had been involved in a verbal altercation with a second male, later identified as Jordan R. Slevin, 27, of New Castle. After the verbal altercation, Slevin and the victim separated, however, a short time later, Slevin approached the victim from behind and proceeded to strike him in the head several times with a metal pipe. Slevin then removed a cell phone from one of the victim's pants pockets before fleeing on foot in an unknown direction.

The 48-year-old victim was treated at the scene by New Castle County Paramedics before being transported by EMS to the Christiana Hospital where he was treated for his serious injuries.

After further investigation, which included interviews and the examination of video surveillance footage, troopers were able to positively identify Jordan Slevin as the suspect and obtained warrants charging him with Assault 1st Degree, Possession of a Deadly Weapon During the Commission of a Felony, and Theft.

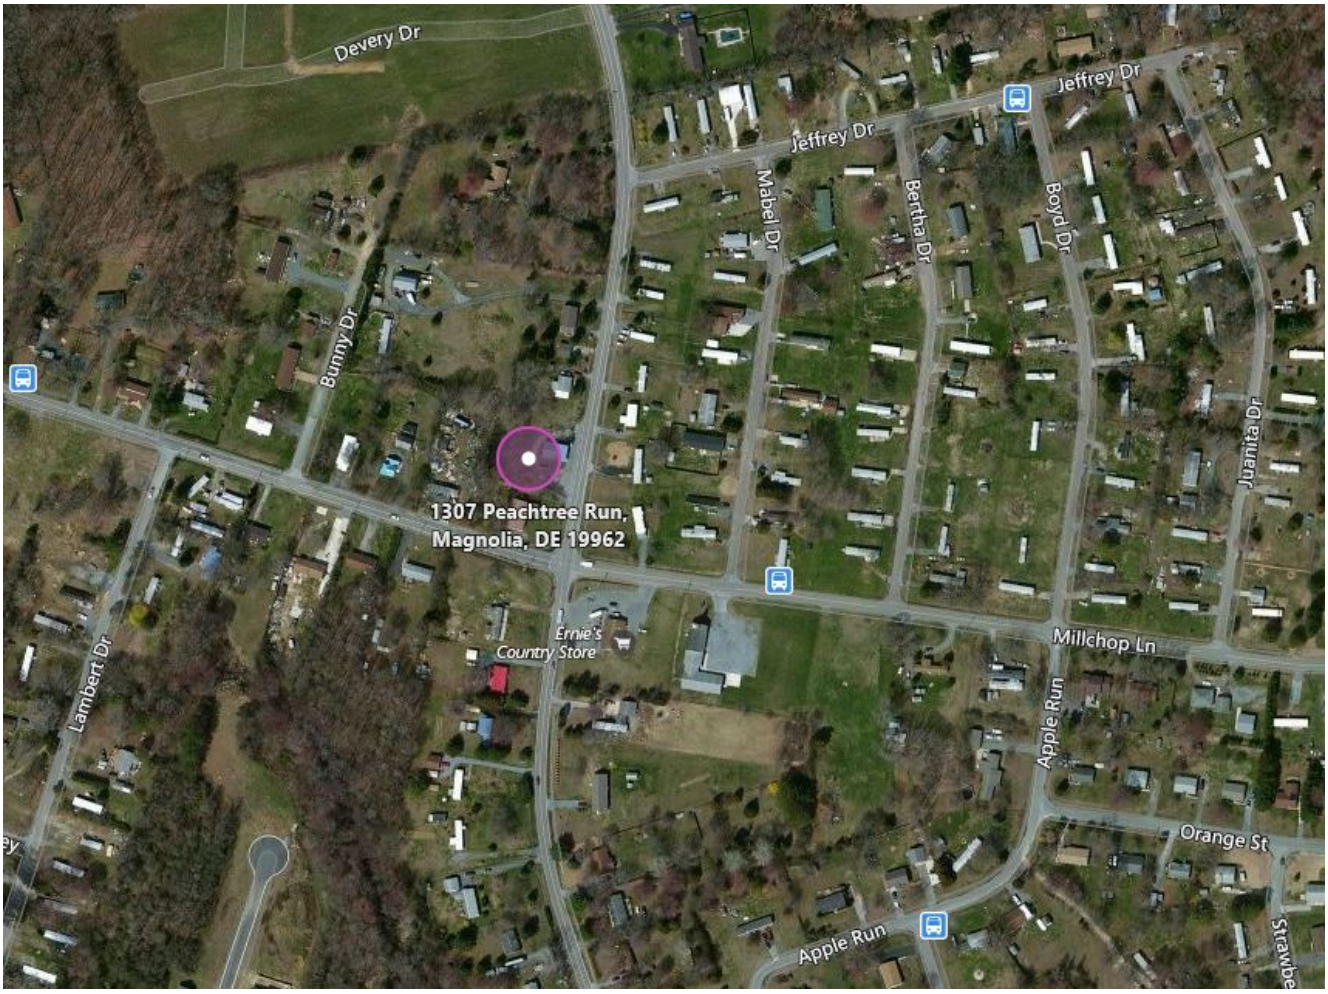

On Monday, September 25, 2017, Jordan Slevin turned himself in to detectives at Troop 2. He was arraigned at JP Court 11 and committed to the Howard Young Correctional Institution in default of $40,500.00 secured bail.
