

State Police Arrest Multiple Suspects for Assault on Food Lion Employee in New Castle

The Delaware State Police arrested 21-year-old Luchiano Diaz of Wilmington, DE, 20-year-old Jazzlyn Johnson of Wilmington, DE, 20-year-old Joseph Brown-Terry of Salem, New Jersey, 18-year-old Curtis Miller of Wilmington, DE, 18-year-old Quamere Britt of New Castle, DE, and a 16-year-old male from New Castle, DE, for multiple offenses stemming from an attack on a Food Lion employee on Friday afternoon in New Castle.

On June 20, 2025, at approximately 1:31 p.m., troopers responded to Food Lion, located at 1200 Beaverbrook Plaza, New Castle, for a report of an assault involving multiple suspects. In the ensuing investigation, troopers learned that the 18-year-old victim was working at the register when he was approached by 8 unknown suspects, and attacked. The victim was kicked and punched by 6 of the suspects, while one of the suspects stood next to the group with a baby in her arms, and another suspect appeared to be filming the attack. During the assault, the victim fell to the ground, and lost consciousness as the suspects continued to kick and punch him. While the suspects ran out of the store, witnesses reported one of the suspects threatened to return to the store and kill the victim. The suspects fled from the shopping center in 2 vehicles, which were identified as a dark-colored Nissan Murano, and a dark-colored Ford Taurus, both with Delaware registration.

The victim was taken to an area hospital by EMS for serious injuries to his head.

Following the assault, a New Castle County Police Department Officer observed the Nissan fail to stop at a stop sign as it was fleeing from the shopping center, and conducted a traffic stop on the vehicle. Troopers responded to the traffic stop, and learned the Nissan was one of the suspect vehicles. Further investigation revealed the Nissan's 4 occupants, identified as Jazzlyn Johnson, Joseph Brown-Terry, Curtis Miller, and a 16-year-old male, were 4 of the 8 suspects involved in the assault. The 4 suspects were taken into custody without incident. Troopers searched the area for the Ford, which was not located. Through investigative means, and with the assistance of Probation and Parole, troopers identified 2 of the 4 suspects that fled in the Ford as Quamere Britt, and Luchiano Diaz. Troopers continue investigating this incident as the 2 remaining suspects that fled in the Ford, an unknown male, and an unknown female, have not been identified.

On June 20, 2025, Johnson, Brown-Terry, Miller, and the 16-year-old suspect were taken to Troop 2, where they were each charged with multiple crimes. On June 22, 2025, troopers, with the assistance of Probation and Parole, located Britt and Diaz, and took them into custody without incident. Britt and Diaz were taken to Troop 2, where they were each charged for multiple crimes.

Delaware State Police Investigating Officer- Involved Shooting in Lewes

The Delaware State Police Homicide Unit is investigating an officer-involved shooting that occurred late Sunday night in Lewes.

On June 22, 2025, at approximately 11:00 p.m., troopers were dispatched to a residence in the 32000 block of Cea Dag Circle in Dagsboro to check on the welfare of a 49-year-old armed man who made threats to harm himself and his family. The man was identified as Jason Arnold.

While responding, troopers learned that Arnold was driving a black Honda Pilot and was possibly on his way to the family home on Blackwood Drive in Lewes. An officer from the Millsboro Police Department spotted a vehicle matching the description in town limits and attempted a traffic stop. The Honda did not stop, and a pursuit ensued with the assistance of a trooper. The pursuit ended on Blackwood Drive.

The preliminary investigation revealed that after coming to a stop on Blackwood Drive, Arnold got out of the Honda armed with a firearm and began shooting at the officers. The Millsboro officer and the trooper returned fire. Arnold was hit during the exchange but ran into his family's house on Blackwood Drive.

Over the next several hours, members of the Delaware State Police Special Operations Response Team and the Crisis Management Team attempted to negotiate Arnold's surrender. Eventually, officers entered the home and found Arnold dead from what appeared to be a self-inflicted gunshot wound to the upper body. He was pronounced dead at the scene. His family has been notified.

During the incident, a 69-year-old woman in a neighboring home sustained minor injuries. It is unclear at this time whether her injuries were directly related to the exchange of gunfire. She was treated at a local hospital and released. No other injuries were reported.

Per Delaware State Police standard operating procedures, the trooper involved has been placed on administrative leave pending the outcome of a use-of-force investigation conducted in conjunction with the Delaware Department of Justice. The Millsboro Police Department officer involved will also follow their departmental protocol.

The Delaware State Police Homicide Unit continues to investigate this incident. Detectives ask anyone with relevant information to contact Detective M. Csapo at (302) 741-2729. Information may also be provided by contacting Delaware Crime Stoppers at 1-800-TIP-3333.

State Police Arrest Hartly Man for Burglary in Camden; Second Suspect At-Large

Delaware State Police have arrested 40-year-old Ronald Keiser of Hartly, Delaware, for multiple felony offenses stemming from a burglary that occurred earlier this week in Camden. Troopers are seeking the public's assistance with their ongoing efforts to locate Keiser's accomplice, 53-year-old Matthew Melvin of Seaford, Delaware.

On June 16, 2025, at approximately 5:46 a.m., troopers responded to a residence, located on the 8000 block of Westville Road in Camden, for a report of a burglary. When troopers arrived, they learned that during the overnight hours, two unknown white males arrived on the property in a white Toyota 4-Runner pulling a trailer. The suspects entered a detached garage on the property and stole 2 ATVs and power tools. The suspects fled in an unknown direction with the stolen items.

Through investigative means, troopers identified the suspects as Ronald Keiser and Matthew Melvin. Later in the day, troopers on patrol in the area of the Royal Farms in Hartly, saw a Toyota 4-Runner pulling a trailer that matched the description of the suspect vehicle from the burglary in Camden. Troopers pulled the Toyota over and spoke with the female driver and the passenger, identified as Ronald Keiser. Ronald was taken into custody without incident. Troopers attempted to locate Melvin, who is wanted for multiple felony offenses.

Keiser was taken to Troop 3, where he was charged with the crimes listed below, arraigned by Justice of the Peace Court

2, and committed to Sussex Correctional Institution on a $7,000 secured bond.

- Burglary 3rd Degree (Felony)
- Possession of Burglar Tools or Instruments (Felony)
- Theft $1,500 or Greater (Felony)
- Conspiracy 2nd Degree (Felony)

- Criminal Mischief under $1,000
- Criminal Trespass 2nd Degree

Troopers are asking anyone who has information on Matthew Melvin's whereabouts to contact Delaware State Police Troop 3 at (302) 697-4454. Information may also be provided by sending a private Facebook message to the Delaware State Police or contacting Delaware Crime Stoppers at 1-800-847-3333.

Update – Suspect Arrested

State Police Investigate Robbery at Newark Royal Farms

The Delaware State Police arrested 29-year-old Cornell Rawlings of Elkton, Maryland, for an armed robbery that occurred in June last year at a Royal Farms in Newark.

On June 16, 2024, at approximately 3:08 a.m., troopers responded to a report of an armed robbery at Royal Farms, located at 2808 Pulaski Highway in Newark. The preliminary investigation revealed two employees were in the back office when they noticed the store's camera system had stopped working. Shortly after, one of the employees heard someone enter the store and observed the individual standing at one of the registers as they exited the back office. The unidentified suspect then displayed a firearm and demanded money. As the second employee appeared from the back office, they saw the suspect pointing the gun at the first employee. Following the suspect's orders, the second employee got on the ground. The first employee then handed over an undisclosed amount of cash to the suspect, who subsequently fled the scene.

Through investigative means, Troop 2 Criminal Investigations Detectives identified Cornell Rawlings as the suspect responsible for the robbery, and obtained a warrant for his arrest. On June 18, 2025, Rawlings was extradited from Maryland, and taken to Troop 2, where he was charged with the crimes listed below, arraigned by Justice of the Peace Court 2, and committed to Howard R. Young Correctional Institution on a $152,000 cash bond.
